Proprietary Medicine Frauds
Should Be Exposed

There have been plenty of them, no doubt, and they have been vigorously condemned—so vigorously, that every sort of medicine, the formula of which is privately owned, is condemned and pronounced "unethical" by the Medical Profession.

Eckman's Alternative deserves attention, not because it is a "proprietary," but because it really has cured many cases of Tuberculosis. If it is a fraud it needs exposing badly, because a number of cured Consumptives will need to find some other reason for being well.

Henry Clay said he would rather be right than be President. Is it not better for Eckman's Alternative to make cures than to be ethical?

In July, 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die.
I heard of Eckman's Alternative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption.

(Signed affidavit) Arthur Webb.

throat and lung troubles, and is on sale two very successful sermons before the Federated churches on Sunday. It is expected that the Rev. J. Wallace Chesbro, who has accepted a call to become the pastor of these churches, will be the meantime, the Kelley house, in which he is to be located, is being wired for as well as ever." Severe colds, stubborn coughs, inflamed throats and sore lungs, hemorrhages, croup and whooping cough this glorious medicine. 50c and $1.00.

Cross Pharmacy.

GRANITEVILLE.

On account of the fair, which is being held in the hall this week, the regular meeting of Maple Leaf camp, M. W. A., ing year will take place at this meeting and it is important that all members

BETHEL

Confidence Felt in the Granite Deposits in Town.

Supt. W. C. Clifford wishes to correct a statement recently published in the paper in regard to the depth of Bethel granite. Two years ago, before building its sheds here, the company expended over $1,500 in experimenting. Five days' work was spent in drilling, and it was discovered that to the depth of 100 feet granite cores, varying with the thickness of the sheets from a few feet to five feet, and the 100 feet also yielded a never failing flow of water, thus demonstrating the presence of a thickness of granite deposit sufficient for many years to come.

T. A. Chadwick, who has been in ill health for some time, is now suffering from an attack of the grippe.

The Rev. George H. Goodwin preached his last sermon before the Congregational church on Sunday, and about the 15th with his family, will leave for his new field of labor in Haverhill, Mass.

The ladies of the Universalist church will hold a fair the 15th and 16th of this month in the town hall. A new feature will be a hash supper, served both nights, and the first cents there will be a two-cent comedy, "Mr. Bon," under the management of Mrs. A. Lee Cady and Miss Grace Tupper.

E. A. Fisher is to meet the business men of this town on this evening to consider plans for the rebuilding of the church, which was burned in April. It is expected that Mr. Fisher will ask for some assistance from the people, and it is hoped some arrangement may be made, whereby this industry may be started again in town.

The body of Charles Claflin was brought here last week from Hot Springs, Ark., and taken to Hancock for interment. Deceased was a cousin of Clinton Claflin of this place and had formerly spent some time with his cousin. He went to Hot Springs for his health and but little is known as to the cause of his death, except that the cause was pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lord left here last week for Vallejo, Cal., where they will remain for ten days, after which they will sail for Honolulu, where Mr.
Lord is connected with the construction of a large drydock for the United States government. This dock, when completed, will be the largest in the world, and its installation will probably cover a period of five years. Mrs. Lord will be reunited here as Joseph, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Morse.

Rising Star grange elected the following officers at its annual meeting: Master, Scott Gillett; overseer, Merrill Por-Larock; chaplain, Mrs. W. L. Fish; treasurer, C. F. Waldo; secretary, Mrs.

C. F. Waldo; gatekeeper, Forest Doty; Ceres, Mrs. Scott Gillett; Pomona, Mrs.
C. W. Waldo; Flora, Flora Larock; lady assistant steward, Bessie Bradley; pianist, Mabel Chapman. At the next meeting, there will be a Christmas program and tree for the members and their families.

MONTPELIER

Many Deaths and Funerals During Past Few Days.

The funeral services of Paphro D.
Pike were held at the Riverside Saturday afternoon, Charles H. Shipman, first reader of the Christian Science church, officiating. The body was taken to Forest Hills, Mass., for cremation at the Forest Hills cemetery.

The funeral services of John Chynoweth were held from the home of his son, Kimball Chynoweth, yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Hough of Trinity church officiating. The body was taken to Vershire for interment. Mr. Chynoweth came to America 35 years ago, having been born in Cornwall, England, Feb. 23, 1874. He had resided with his son in this city since last summer.
Besides his son in this city, Mr. Chynoweth left two sisters, one of Philadelphia and the other of Cornwall, England.

The funeral services of William O.
Cummings were held at his late home in Shady Hill this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.
Rev. J. W. Burgh of Lyndon Center officiated, assisted by Rev. L. J. Ramburg of this city.

Mrs. Harma Deslauriers died Saturday afternoon at her home here of cancer, from which she had been suffering for some time. She was 54 years of age and left a husband, who is employed by the Lane Manufacturing company, and five children. The funeral will be held in St. Augustine's church, Tuesday morning.

About fifty men are at present employed on the Curry-Deavitt-Frost dam and work on it is being hurried to completion. The weather is a little too cold for the cement to harden, as it should be about 40 degrees above to harden without cracking. The dam is still in position, but after the completion of the power house, on which most of the work last week was done, work will be begun in earnest on the permanent dam. By the last of this week, it is expected that the dam will be changed over in order to divert the stream so that the men may dig in the center of the cement dam for the central foundation. In two or three weeks more the dam will be torn down and the water allowed to run against the permanent structure.

The Comique theatre, which was bought some time ago by Moses H.
Farrar from Roach brothers, has been made over for a vaudeville and the doors will be open to the public this evening for the first time. Much expense has been laid out by Mr. Farrar to make this a first-class picture house. The interior, which has been enlarged thirty feet, will now seat 250 people and a new system of ventilation has been arranged, preventing drafts from the entrance. There is now a vaudeville stage, 30 feet wide, which can be used for showing purposes, but will not be used for some time, and dressing rooms have been built on either side of the stage.
The lobby and box office is lighted with electric bulbs, and a large electric dome, of colored lights, makes an attractive exterior. William Robertson of Barre will be the soloist this evening.

THE ROMANCE OF WHEAT.

Once Raised For Prices Only, Now
The World's Food.

Wheat is the food of princes and peasants. It is the food of the world.
It was known to be the best food for fifty centuries, but it did not until thirty or forty years ago become universal. Every community ate all it raised. There was none to sell. It was so precious that only kings and the nobilities could afford it. It was sowed by peasants, who reaped it with a sickle by hand. For 5,000 years no better plan was conceived than the sickle and the scythe. Then came the reaper, an invention by Cyrus H. McCormick, of Scotch-Irish descent. Then the world began eating white bread.

This new machine, the reaper, when it was full grown into the self binder was equal to forty sickles. With one man to drive it, it could cut and bind enough wheat in one season to feed 400 persons. In its most highly developed form, the combined harvester and thrasher, it has become so giant-like a machine that thirty-two horses are required to haul it.

This levathan cuts a fifty foot roadway through the grain, thrashes it and bags it at the rate of one bag every half minute. And the total world production of reapers of every sort—self binders, mowers, headers, corn binders, etc.—is probably as many as 1,500,000 a year, two-thirds of them being made in the United States.

Because of this harvesting machinery the wheat crop of the world is now nearly twice what it was in 1870. The American crop has multiplied six and a half times in fifty years. Western Canada, Australia, Siberia, and Argentina have become wheat producers.

The cost of growing one bushel in America with machinery and high wages is now about half a dollar, which is less than the cost in Europe and as low as the cost in India, where laborers can be hired for a few pennies a day. With a sickle the time cost of a bushel of wheat was three hours. With a self binder it is now ten minutes.

Then came the steamboat and the railroad that carried the grain. At the outset it was shipped in bags. Then some railway genius invented the grain car, which holds as much as twenty or twenty-five wagon loads, and today one of the ordinary moving pictures of an American railroad is a sixty car train traveling eastward with enough wheat in its rolling bins to give bread to a city of 10,000 people for a year.

The Siberian railway, which is the longest straight line of steel in the world, was built largely as a wheat conveyor. So were the railways of western Canada, Argentina and India.

It is cheaper to carry wheat from one country to another than from the farm to the nearest town. The average distance that an American farmer has to haul his grain is nine and a half miles, and the average cost of haulage is 9 cents for a hundred pounds. Thus it has actually become true that to carry wheat ten miles by wagon costs more than 2,300 miles by steamship.
Such is the tense efficiency of our wheat carrier system that a bushel of grain can now be piled up in Missouri and sent to the cotton spinners of England for a dime.

First Feeding of Chickens.

Don't feed raw dough or rough mash to young chicks such as you feed larger chicks. Raw dough sours in the crop and brings on all sorts of bowel troubles. If you want to feed this stuff cook it well beforehand.
Well means through and through, not just a hard crust on the outside and the middle a soggy, wet mash. This is as bad as feeding it raw.

Chicks will do well for a while on a grain ration alone, but they will do better if fed a little meat from the first. If the grain ration is dry and sweet chicks can be fed a little green

BREAKFAST IN THE POULTRY YARD.

cut bone from the very first. Just a little thrown in so that each chick can get a morsel or two will help wonderfully. If you ever dropped a bit of meat into a brooder full of two weeks-old chicks and saw them scam-ble and fight over it you won't doubt that they needed it.

Cooked meat cut up very fine safer and perhaps just as good, but it is costly. However, cost should be little considered in feeding chicks for the first few weeks, as a foundation can be then secured well worth many times its cost. Feed your poultry regularly. They will come to know you and wait for you and are all the better for it. The illustration will give you an idea.

Winter Radishes.
Try some winter radishes. They are easily grown and will be greatly enjoyed when fresh vegetables from the garden cannot be had every day. The soil should be deep, fine and rich and well supplied with moisture. Either red or white varieties may be secured from all seedsmen.

His Memory.
"Has he a good memory?"
"No, just a common, ordinary, everyday memory. He remembers people who owe him money much better than those to whom he owes money."—Detroit Free Press.

Plow, or a good, new Concord Buggy, or allow the price of either of these to go towards the purchase of any more expensive article.

To the purchaser buying the second largest amount in the same time I will give a good Driving Harness, an Eclipse Corn Planter, or allow the price of either ($20.00) to apply on any larger purchase.

tions.
